ASC-certified Salmon Fillet

Our frozen salmon fillet is sourced from Blumar, a renowned producer in Chile, recognized for its high standards in aquaculture and commitment to sustainable practices. Each fillet is carefully processed and frozen at peak freshness to preserve its natural flavor, firm texture, and vibrant color.

Blumar's salmon is ASC-certified (Aquaculture Stewardship Council), ensuring responsible farming, environmental care, and full traceability from farm to table. This certification guarantees that our salmon meets strict global standards for sustainability and quality.

Ideal for grilling, baking, pan-searing, or raw applications, Blumar's ASC-certified salmon offers a reliable and sustainable choice for markets that require certified seafood.

Atlantic Salmon Fillet Trim C

- 3-4 LBS / 4-5 LBS
- Packing: 1KG x 10PKTS x 1CTN
- Halal certified

Order by cartion only.

ASC-certified items require strict classification, dedicated packaging, and the inclusion of the official ASC logo, as regulated by the certification body. To maintain compliance and ensure full traceability, we are unable to sell these products in loose or repacked form.

Non ASC-certified Salmon Fillet

In addition to our ASC-certified salmon offerings, we also provide a selection of non-ASC certified frozen salmon fillets to meet different market requirements and offer greater flexibility in product choice. These options include both Atlantic Salmon and Coho Salmon, delivering reliable quality, excellent flavor, and versatile performance for a wide range of culinary applications.

Camanchaca

A well-established Chilean producer known for consistent quality and dependable production. Although this range is non-ASC certified, each fillet is carefully processed and frozen to retain freshness, natural taste, and versatility for various cooking methods.

AquaChile

One of Chile's largest and most recognized salmon producers. This non-ASC certified option offers good texture, rich flavor, and reliable performance. Each fillet is efficiently handled and frozen to ensure freshness and suitability for multiple culinary uses.

Prawn Size Guide

Shrimp sizes are commonly expressed as numbers (e.g., 16/20, 21/25), representing how many pieces are contained in one pound—the smaller the number, the larger the shrimp.

This chart allows buyers to easily compare sizes across our different shrimp varieties and select the ideal size for grilling, sushi, frying, hot dishes, or premium presentations.

Japanese-Style Shrimp Selection

We also offer a specialized range of shrimp products commonly used in Japanese cuisine, suitable for sushi bars, izakaya, and restaurants seeking authentic flavor and high-quality presentation. Our selection includes Sushi Ebi, Panko Ebi Fry, Ama Ebi, and Aka Ebi, each processed with care to deliver excellent texture, color, and consistency.
